

VALUE MAPPING TOOL

Value Mapping is a tool that helps describe personal and organizational values.

WHY USE THIS TOOL?

The Value Mapping tool helps align the values of the individual with that of the community. This is useful to generate a shared understanding of what should be prioritized by the community.

WHERE CAN YOU FIND THIS TOOL?

You can find more information on this and other tools from Development Impact & You Toolkit: An initiative of Nesta at diytoolkit.org

HOW TO USE IT

1. List or describe your personal values, and those embodied by your organization.
2. Map the identified values to the level of perceived importance (always, sometimes, rarely, or never important) by filling in the relevant fields provided, for both your individual and organization's values.
